Unexpectedly spacious and holding the feel of a freestanding home within a boutique townhouse setting, this exceptional residence makes an immediate impression. North-facing and set across two expansive light-filled levels, a converted attic with air conditioning and a basement-style games room add an unexpected layer of space and flexibility.

Unfolding beneath modern coffered ceilings with ambient lighting, sprawling open plan living and dining extend to an enormous terrace framed by an automated louvred pergola with a rain sensor leading to an equally impressive, paved yard. Renovated to perfection, a generous kitchen with streams of stone benchtops and storage is both functional and refined, delivering a natural connection to indoor and
